

History on Your Doorstep project

Oral history training volunteer information sheet

Thank you for considering to volunteer with the History on Your Doorstep

Recording spoken voice is one of the main ways of capturing memories for future generations. These histories can help bring photographs and newspapers to life and make it easier for people to research local history in the future. Maybe you also have memories of your own to share.

We are offering free oral history training through the History on Your Doorstep project. This training includes how to interview someone successfully, editing and transcribing the interviews before they are archived.

To book a place please contact us:

Telephone: 01273 482349

Email: lynn.tye@eastsussex.gov.uk

Write to: The Keep, Woollards Way, Brighton, BN1 9BP

What's happening when?

Sessions are free and run at The Keep. Attendance to all sessions is beneficial, but not essential.

We cover travel costs to sessions. Tea, coffee and substantial sweet and savoury snacks are included in all sessions, but please bring a packed lunch if needed.

Thursday 23rd April 12pm-3pm

Oral history introduction training session.

Thursday 30th April 12pm-3pm

Practical training, including planning your interview questions.

Thursday 7th May 12pm-2:30pm

Research day at The Keep using original documents to discover the history of major employers in Brighton and Hove.

Thursday 14th May 12pm-3pm

Oral history Interviews at The Keep supported by oral historians.

Thursday 21st May 12pm-3pm

Editing and transcribing training session.

Thursday 28th May, 4th June and 11th June 12pm-2:30pm

Preparing our interviews for archiving in The Keep .

